

Oxford Scholastica Academy Child Protection Policy

We are committed to protecting children from harm.

Our staff and tutors accept and recognise our responsibilities to develop awareness of issues which can cause children and young people harm.

We will endeavour to safeguard children and young people by:

- Adopting child protection guidelines through a code of behaviour
- Sharing information about child protection and good practice
- Sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- Following carefully the procedures for recruitment and selection of staff and tutors
- Providing effective management for staff through supervision, support and training

We are also committed to reviewing our policy and good practice after each summer, in August each year.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Statement of Intent

It is the policy of OSA to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people by protecting them from all forms of abuse including physical, emotional and sexual harm.

The organisation is committed to creating a safe environment in which young people can feel comfortable and secure while engaged in any of OSA's courses, masterclasses, activities, trips and at any other point during their time with us.

Our team should at all times show respect and understanding for the children's rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the ethos and principles of OSA.

Guidelines for all Oxford Scholastica Academy staff and tutors

Attitudes

We should be committed to:

- Treating children and young people with respect and dignity
- Always listening to what a child or young person is saying
- Valuing each child and young person
- Recognising the unique contribution each individual can make
- Encouraging and praising each child or young person where appropriate

By example

We should endeavour to:

- Provide an example which we would wish others to follow
- Use appropriate language with children and young people and challenge any inappropriate language used by a young person or child or an adult working with young people
- Respect a young person's right to privacy

One-to-one contact

Staff and tutors should:

- Not spend excessive amounts of time alone with children, away from others
- In the unlikely event of having to meet with an individual child or young person make every effort to keep this meeting as open as possible
- If privacy is needed, ensure that other staff are informed of the meeting and its whereabouts

Physical contact

Staff and tutors should never:

- Engage in sexually provocative or rough physical games, including horseplay
- Do things of a personal nature for a child or a young person that they can do for themselves
- Allow, or engage in, inappropriate touching of any kind

General

Staff and tutors should:

- Be aware that someone might misinterpret our actions no matter how well intentioned
- Never draw any conclusions about others without checking the facts
- Never allow ourselves to be drawn into inappropriate attention seeking situations such as tantrums or crushes
- Never exaggerate or trivialise child abuse issues or make suggestive remarks or gestures about, or to a child or young person, even in fun

Staff and tutors who are involved in relationships with other members of staff or tutors should ensure that their personal relationships do not affect their role within OSA or the work of OSA.

OSA has an open door policy for staff and tutors, in order that they may raise any concern they might have to Laurie, Jamie or Sophie. Staff and tutors should know that they have the full support and backing of OSA to voice any concerns over a young person's well being.

SHARING INFORMATION ABOUT CHILD PROTECTION AND GOOD PRACTICE WITH CHILDREN, STAFF AND TUTORS

Good communication is essential in any organisation. In OSA every effort will be made to assure that, should individuals have concerns, they will be listened to and taken seriously. It is the responsibility of the management to ensure that information is available to, and exchanged between all those involved in this organisation and its activities. Some information is confidential and should only be shared on a strictly need-to-know basis.

Children and young people

Children and young people have a right to information, especially any information that could make life better and safer for them. OSA will act to ensure they have information about how, and with whom, they can share their concerns, complaints and anxieties.

When sharing information, OSA personnel will be sensitive to the level of understanding and maturity, as well as to the level of responsibility, of the people with whom they are sharing.

Parents

Parents/guardians are ultimately responsible for their children's welfare at all times, and they should be assured that their children are involved with a credible organisation.

We achieve this by:

- Publicising information on all our work
- Publishing the named Designated Child Protection Person(s) and how to make a complaint
- Publishing a full copy of the Child Protection Policy

Staff & Tutors

As an organisation which works with children and young people it is imperative that each member of the OSA staff is aware of their responsibilities under the Child Protection legislation and has a working knowledge of OSA's procedures. Each member of staff will receive updated training in Child Protection.

Other Bodies

A copy of our Child Protection Policy will be made available to any other appropriate body.

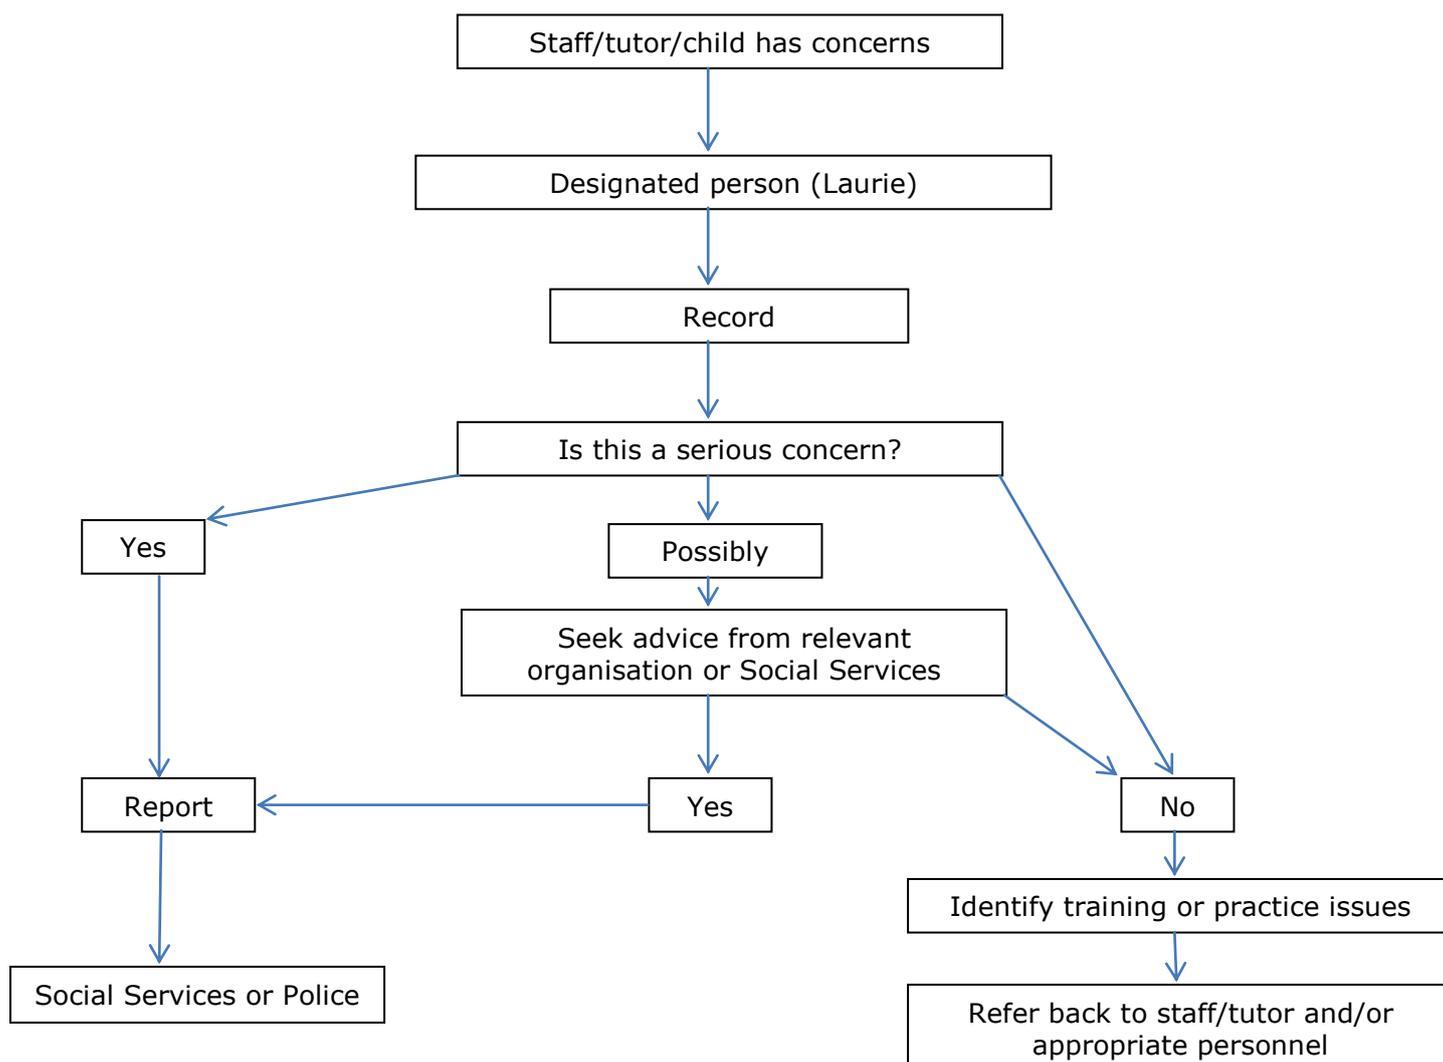

SHARING INFORMATION ABOUT CONCERNS WITH AGENCIES WHO NEED TO KNOW AND INVOLVING PARENTS AND CHILDREN APPROPRIATELY

Procedure for reporting allegations or suspicions of abuse

In any case where an allegation is made, or someone in OSA has concerns, a record should be made in writing as soon as possible following the incident or report. Details must include, as far as practical:

- Age
- Home Address (if known)
- Date of Birth (if known)
- Name/s and Address of parent/s or person/s with parental responsibility

- Is the person making the report expressing their own concerns, or passing on those of somebody else? If so, record details
- What has prompted the concerns? Include dates and times of any specific incidents
- Has the child or young person been spoken to? If so, what was said?
- Has anybody been alleged to be the abuser? If so, record details
- Who has this been passed on to, in order that appropriate action is taken? e.g. school, designated officer, social services etc.
- Has anyone else been consulted? If so, record details

- Only the Designated Persons will have access to these files

DISCLOSURE

- Never guarantee absolute confidentiality, as Child Protection will always have precedence over any other issues
- Listen to the child, rather than question him or her directly. Offer him/her reassurance without making promises, and take what the child says seriously
- Allow the child to speak without interruption, Accept what is said – it is not your role to investigate or question. Do not overreact
- Alleviate feelings of guilt and isolation, while passing no judgement
- Advise that you will try to offer support, but that you must pass the information on
- Explain what you have to do and whom you have to tell
- Record the discussion accurately, as soon as possible after the event. Use the child's words or explanations – do not translate into your own words, in case you have misconstrued what the child was trying to say
- Contact one of the OSA Designated Persons for advice/guidance. The Designated Person may then discuss the concern/suspicion with the relevant organisation, and, if appropriate, make a direct referral
- If either Designated Person is not available, or it is inappropriate to approach them, the tutor/member of staff with the concern should make direct contact with the relevant organisation themselves
- Record any discussions or actions taken within 24 hours
